

Lenten Season Services Told

During the Lenten season special services will be held at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 706 Knob Hill Ave., Redondo Beach. On Sunday mornings in the regular worship hours at 8:30 and 11.

Pastor A. L. T. Schuetz will speak on the beautifully prophetic 53rd chapter of Isaiah in a series of sermons. Beginning with Ash Wednesday, a special series of services also will be held each Wednesday evening at 7:30 in which the pastor will speak on the general theme "Our Lord on Trial" presenting in successive weeks the specific messages which will bring first three witnesses for the prosecution, namely, a Pharisee, a Sadducee, and a money-changer; and then three witnesses for the defense in the persons of Simon Peter, Pontius Pilate, and Jesus Christ Himself.

A special continued reading of the Passion History of our Lord will also be a part of these services; together with special Lenten music by the various choirs of Immanuel.

Sunday Worship At South Bay Baptist Church

"As Jesus Passed By" is the sermon topic chosen by Dr. J. C. Brumfield, pastor, for the 11 a.m. Sunday morning worship service at the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, Southwest Torrance.

A junior service is held at the same hour. A modern crib-nursery is maintained for care of toddlers at all stated church services.

"The University of Prayer" is the topic of Dr. Brumfield's talk at the 7:30 p.m. services. Baptist training groups for all ages meet each Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Each Sunday morning at 9:45, interesting and instructive classes for all ages, are offered in the Sunday School. Bus transportation is available in the area and may be obtained by calling the church office, FRontier 5-3433.

Architects for the project are Verge and Clatworthy, 4342 Eagle Rock Blvd., Los Angeles, California; Structural Engineer, John J. Driskell, a San Gabriel resident with offices at 312 East Las Tunas, San Gabriel, California; John F. Reardon and Associates are the electrical and mechanical engineers whose address is 17638 Sherman Way, Rosedale, California.

The meeting, somewhat unique in construction industry, brought together all the participating personnel: the owners, architects, engineers, contractors and organized labor. The purpose of the gathering was to promote a coordinated effort for all to do a high grade job with the utmost speed, before actual construction begins.

Among those present were the Rt. Reverend Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, Director of Health and Hospitals for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, who gave the invocation; the Reverend Mother M. Magdalen and Mother M. Lucy who will be responsible for the construction and administration of the new hospital; Mr. Robert I. Plomer, Jr., Chairman of the Hospital Advisory Council; and George A. Levern, construction supervisor for the owners. Also present were George V. Steed and Roy M. Steed and other members of Steed Brothers, together with representatives of the more than thirty sub-contractors participating in the construction.

Dr. Goldenson has chosen not rest on his laurels upon retirement, but has continued to be one of American Judaism's guiding figures, and one of America's most stirring orators as he comes to the South Bay Area to give a message of inspiration to Temple Menorah as it progresses toward becoming an important center of intellectual life and spiritual guidance in the community.

Once the President of the Central Conference of American Rabbis and Vice-President of the World Union for Progressive Judaism, Dr. Goldenson is an honorary Board member of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations.

In explaining his urge to be of service to his people, Rabbi Goldenson said: "Feeling as I do that the real problems of our day are at bottom moral and spiritual in character and believing that the things that Judaism has stressed through its Lawgivers, Psalmists, Sages and Prophets, are most relevant to the needs of these critical times, I have decided to spend as much of my time in the future, as is possible, in talking Judaism to our people."

I am convinced that the more we learn about Judaism and value its essential quality, the more strength we will find to bear the burdens laid upon us, the better account we will be able to give of ourselves in our respective pursuits in life, and the surer and finer contributions we will make to general betterment."

Lutheran Pastor Accepts Call to Spokane Church

Pastor Paul C. Wenske, who has served First Lutheran Church, Carson and Flower, for the past 10 years, will leave Torrance February 27 for Spokane, Wash. Pastor Wenske has accepted the call to become pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church there.

Pastor Wenske and family came to Torrance 10 years ago from Dayton, Ohio, where he was a federal housing chaplain under the National Housing Council. At that time Torrance was a small town and First Lutheran was a small church. The first Sunday that Pastor Wenske took over as pastor there were 30 in Sunday School and 40 in church. At the present time there are 650 in the Sunday School and the church has a membership of 1020 baptized souls and 520 adult members.

During Pastor Wenske's pastorate in Torrance, a new parsonage was built at 2550 El Dorado and the church was relocated from Acacia and Sonoma to Carson and Flower where a three and one-half acre plot of ground was purchased by the congregation. On this plot of ground a church with an office wing and education building has been built. The church plant and lot are valued at $240,000.

Juvenile Delinquency Is EVERYBODY'S PROBLEM

We hope that this page will serve as an "OPEN FORUM" for the people of our communities. We are inviting you to write letters which will be published on this page. The alarming rise in juvenile delinquency can be stemmed. So let us talk it over through the columns of this paper. Just sit down and write a letter. What is your idea? We all love these youngsters. What can we do to help straighten them out before they become involved.

This is your "OPEN FORUM" The opinions expressed in the letter and editorials are not necessarily the opinion of the Torrance Press nor of the sponsors who have made this page possible.

Let Us Face the Facts:

All Americans respect J. EDGAR HOOVER, Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation. He is keenly interested in our major problem "JUVENILE DELINQUENCY" so we now publish from Mr. Hoover the following:

"In community after community across the land, the forces of immorality have gained a strangle hold. Filth and degradation may be purchased. Those few twisted minds which still remain in the motion picture and entertainment industry continue to undo the good work of others by placing a premium on indecency.

Is it any wonder then that some young Americans, the children who will inherit the tremendous responsibility of guiding this free Nation, have exhibited so many danger signs? In a country whose principles are based upon the teachings of God, children must not be permitted to believe that "anything is all right as long as you can get away with it."

In 1956, America experienced the worst year of crime in its history. There was a major crime committed every 12.3 seconds.

These figures, alone, are shocking; but even more alarming is the role of youth. Reports from cities across the Nation show that persons under the age of 18 accounted for over 45 per cent of arrests in 1956 for major crimes. Since 1952 our juvenile arrests have risen forty one and one-half per cent.

There is only one inescapable conclusion: Adult America is tragically failing its youth. Where is the influence of the home, Where are the forces for good? The constant deterioration of respect for authority has had an unmistakable and happy influence upon the attitudes of youth.

Are we to stand idly by while fierce young hoodlums—too often are long harbored under the glossy misnomer of juvenile delinquents— roam our streets and desecrate our communities?

We speak of the church and God's influence upon our people. But in how many homes can the influence of religion truly be found? How many of today's juvenile terrorists are products of unfortunate homes where parents have neither the interest nor the desire to become an integral part of their children's lives. Tragically, the moral decline which is evidenced in our rapidly increasing rates of crime and delinquency can be traced to the very portals of the home.

Moral delinquency is so debauching, spiritual illiteracy is so appalling and secularism is so blighting the unless God abide in the intimate atmosphere of the family circle, the best efforts of the church and others whose wholesome elements in the community may be inadequate to correct the damage already done.

The basic cause of the present situation is that so many people have no real sense of moral responsibility which comes from an intimate knowledge of God's teachings. This is essential to meet the communist enemy of both our spiritual and physical freedom.

MORE NEXT WEEK FROM J. EDGAR HOOVER.

And if you are really interested in our town and the youngsters growing up now is the time to write us a letter with your suggestions.

What do you think? What is the solution? Let us hear from you.
